REFERENCE MATERIAL AURM3 - PURCHASE ORDER
We wish to order the following Certified Gold Reference Material(s) (each unit consisting of 1 gold disk containing approximately 67 grams). The price quoted below is the fixed part of the price. In addition the price includes the value of the gold content, calculated on the basis of the exact fine weight of each unit multiplied by the London PM price on the business day following receipt of the order. Cost of shipment by secure carrier will also be added to the purchase invoice. ___ units of Gold Reference Material AuRM3 at a price of $2,750 per unit (plus the value of contained gold at the current PM Price).
AGREEMENT
We also understand that the cost of shipping and insurance by means of a secure carrier will be added to the sales invoice. We agree to the following disclaimer: <input type="checkbox"/> (Please tick). The LBMA, the Steering Committee, the Manufacturer and the laboratories involved in the chemical analysis of the Reference Material have used their best endeavours to ensure that the Reference Material is homogeneous in respect of the contained elements and that their concentrations are accurately determined. However, we recognize that there can be no absolute guarantees in relation to these parameters. We therefore absolve the LBMA and the companies participating in the project from any responsibility if the Reference Materials fails to meet the specifications described in the Certificate of Analysis (copy attached).
